

Emmanuel Maillet appointed Deputy CEO in charge of finance and legal affairs for the APRIL Group

APRIL announces Emmanuel Maillet's appointment as Deputy CEO in charge of finance and legal affairs for the Group. Emmanuel, who will continue running APRIL's Finance Department, will now also be responsible for the Business legal department, the Corporate and M&A legal department and the Internal Controlling and Audit department. In his new role, Emmanuel will help steer and implement the Group's strategy.

A graduate from Lyon 2 University with a master's degree in Banking and Finance, Emmanuel Maillet began his career in auditing at Mazars, in 2001. He joined APRIL in 2007 as Financial Director for the APRIL Santé Prévoyance network of agencies, before taking on the role of Investment Director for APRIL's Health-Personal Protection division in 2009, then Company Secretary of the APRIL Santé Prévoyance subsidiary in 2014. Emmanuel Maillet was appointed Finance Director for the APRIL Group in 2017.

"Emmanuel Maillet's appointment will bolster the Group's leadership team as APRIL embarks on a deep-rooted transformation of its model while a change in its majority shareholder is underway," Emmanuel Morandini, CEO of the APRIL Group.

Founded in 1988, APRIL is an international insurance services group with operations in 28 countries, whose ambition is to offer its customers an easier, more accessible insurance experience. Its 3,900 staff members design, manage and distribute specialist insurance solutions (health-personal protection, property and casualty, mobility and legal protection) as well as assistance services for its partners and customers, whether private individuals, professionals or businesses. Listed on Euronext Paris (Compartment B), the Group produced a turnover of €997,2 million in 2018.
